Buckeye Book Fair Celebrates Literary Excellence and Community Engagement on November 4th, 2023

Wooster, Ohio – The renowned Buckeye Book Fair is set to return on November 4th, 2023, at the Greystone Event Center located at 50 Riffle Road in Wooster, Ohio. This highly anticipated literary event brings together a diverse array of authors and readers, celebrating the written word and fostering community connections.

Featuring an impressive lineup of over 100 accomplished authors, including Michelle Houts, Thao Thai, Mindy McGinnis, Amanda Flower, David Goodrich, Annie Hunter Eriksen, and many more, the fair promises a day of literary exploration and discovery. Attendees will have the opportunity to engage with their favorite authors, discover new voices, and immerse themselves in the world of literature.

From fiction to non-fiction, children's books to young adult novels, the Buckeye Book Fair offers something for readers of all ages and interests. The event serves as a platform for both established authors and emerging talents, embodying the spirit of Ohio's vibrant literary community.

"We're thrilled to host this year's Buckeye Book Fair, bringing together authors and readers in a celebration of literature and community," said Kimberly Jarvis, Executive Director. "The fair represents a unique opportunity to engage with authors, learn about their creative processes, and connect with fellow book enthusiasts."

In addition to author interactions, the fair will include book signings, panel discussions, and engaging activities for attendees of all ages. This event stands as a testament to the power of literature to inspire, educate, and unite people from all walks of life.

The Buckeye Book Fair will take place on November 4th, 2023, at the Greystone Event Center in Wooster, Ohio. Doors will open at 9:30 am and finish at 4:00 pm, The event admission is a suggested donation of $2.
